

I am a faithful listener of the K-LOVE Christian music station. It is my understanding that the possibility exist that they could be forced off the air as a result of LPFM. This concerns me. K-LOVE is a station that provides such a positive message to me and my son. It is refreshing to listen to a station that is uplifting and promotes goodness. The world can definetly use more positive messages and good influences.